Discipline & Discharge

Resolution #4115

- This policy supersedes all previous policies and/or handbooks published by the City of Miles City. Negotiated labor contracts that conflict with this policy will take precedence to the applicable extent.

Policy

Non-probationary employees shall be disciplined or discharged only for good cause, which is defined in accordance with state statute as reasonable job-related grounds based on a failure to satisfactorily perform job duties, disruption of the City’s operation, or other legitimate business reason, and only after an investigation which provides credible evidence. Evidence of good cause may come from a single event, a series of related or unrelated events, and/or performance evaluations.

Objective

It is the objective of this policy to establish procedures for taking formal disciplinary action or discharge.

Definitions

- A. “Non-probationary employee” means an employee who has satisfactorily served his or her six month probationary period.
- B. “Employee” means any employee except temporary and short-term employees, independent contractors and elected officials.
- C. “Good Cause” means reasonable, job-related grounds for taking a disciplinary action based on failure to satisfactorily perform job duties, or disruption of City operations, or other legitimate business reason. Good cause includes, but is not limited to, poor performance, a violation of a statute, policy, ordinance, labor agreement, supervisory instructions, or rules/regulations.

Investigation

The City of Miles City, at its discretion, may investigate and take disciplinary action upon learning of a suspected violation of federal, state or local laws, Miles City ordinances, rules and/or regulations, and/or policies, employee conduct/behavior/performance standards, or other conduct not in the best interests of the City of Miles City. The supervisor may informally investigate any allegation of improper conduct to the extent necessary and issue an oral reprimand. In the alternative the Supervisor may report to the Mayor that a full investigation into the matter is appropriate. If the Mayor determines that a full investigation is appropriate, an employee may be placed on administrative leave (with or without pay) in the discretion of the Mayor pending the investigation. The investigation shall be completed at the direction of the Mayor or a designee appointed by the Mayor as investigator, and the final step of the investigation shall include an interview with the employee. The full investigation will be completed and report issued within 30 days, unless the mayor determines a reasonable amount of additional time is needed to complete the investigation and report and report to the Mayor.

Upon conclusion of the investigation, the investigator shall submit a detailed report to the Mayor who may request additional information if the Mayor deems necessary. The employee will be provided the final report of the investigation, and an interview between the Mayor and the employee will be scheduled. The employee being interviewed may request an attendee of the employee's choosing to be present at the interview. However, such attendee will be permitted to observe only and will not be permitted to participate in the interview. At the beginning of the interview, the employee will be given the following warning: "You are being asked to provide information as part of an internal and/or administrative investigation. This is a voluntary interview and you do not have to answer questions if your answers would tend to implicate you in a crime. No disciplinary action will be taken against you solely for refusing to answer questions. However, the evidentiary value of your silence may be considered in administrative proceedings as part of the facts surrounding your case. Any statement you do choose to provide may be used as evidence in criminal and/or administrative proceedings."

Following the interview the Mayor will decide whether discipline is appropriate and, if so, at what level. The employee will be notified in writing of the Mayor's decision.
