4. New Business

Review and make recommendations for no parking sign at 19 North 5th Street

Wendee Essex representative of Stallard and Associates, 19 North Fifth Street explained to the committee that the Olive Motel is being remodeled into apartments and the tenants are parking in front of her business. She asked the Committee to install two hour parking signs. One in front of her business and the other on the East side, across the street of her business.

Committee Member Andrews made a motion to recommend to Council to approve installing two-two hour parking signs on both sides of 5th Street, seconded by Committee Member Wilcox.*

After being informed that she will get billed $75.00 every year for each sign, she decided to install the sign in front of her business and see how it works.

Committee Member Andrews amended his motion to recommend to Council to approve installing a two hour parking sign in front of Stallard and Associates on 5th Street, seconded by Committee Member Wilcox. On roll call vote the amended motion passed 4-0*

5. Adjournment

Committee Member Wilcox moved to adjourn, seconded by Committee Member Andrews, motion passed unanimously.*
